Leather Maintenance Clinic

January 10, 2009 · 1 Comment

In not less than 12 hours after the Grand TT at Sri Buluh Restaurant, we attended the leather maintenance clinic at One Premier Sdn Bhd. Strategically located next to the Puchong-Damansara Highway, this place specializing in maintaining leather interior of cars.

I was pretty impressed over the product presentation made by Chay CW, the sales manager of the company. The presentation was lively, very informative and comprehensive and I was really felt as though like I am the leather interior of an old car whom needs to be indulge with those leather maintenance products; that is how powerful is his presentation towards promoting the products.

Earlier, he demonstrated on how this product works through Uncle Cougar's car as the demonstration car. It is very impressive to see how he applied the leather rejuvenating oil on the interior to allow all the dirt to emerge and leave the car for 3-4 hours under the hot sun to allow the rejuvenating oil to sip into the interior; he mentioned that this is to smoothening the leather as well as to refresh it. Owh, the rejuvenating oil is actually a water base spray that contains animal collagen which is according to him is strictly Halal; after all leather is made of cattle skin. Soon after 4 hours leaving the car under the hot sun, then it is time to wipe all the accumulated dirt away. This time he used the second product to wipe off the rejuvenating oil that accumulates the dirt from the interior and we saw the difference from there.

While we were enjoying the leather maintenance clinic session, the host also provide us lunch, KFC. Besides obtaining our know how on maintaining our leather interior we also enjoyed the food. Overall, their hospitality were superb and we from MyBenz were honored to be there.

The session ended at 2.30 pm and we off to Mosin, near to the old Lim Kok Wing University and had a very small TT there with Uncle Cougar, Pyan and Anuar @ Kapitan.

I guess, this posting is worthless without proofs that we did actually attended this clinic. Below are some pictures taken during the clinical session. Enjoy the pictures by clicking the link below.
